COLUMBIA, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, May 5, 1920.

NUMBER 28,

OIL NEWS.

The Lebanon Oil & Gas Company has been incorporated at Lebanon, Ky., with a capital of $25,000.00. Some of the most prominent men of that city are behind the venture, and they will specialize in developing Marion county.

The price of crude oil continues to advance rapidly and there is no telling where it will go. Even at present prices the production of oil is one of the most profitable and safe investments to be found anywhere, and the opportunity to "get in the game" is knocking at your door today, and without sending your money away from home, for mother earth all around us is simply teeming with "liquid gold" awaiting the efforts of man to bring it forth.

We are pleased to quote from a letter received from Mr. G. A. Roy, president of the Roy Petroleum Co., Covington, Ky., under date of April 26th, as follows:

"On my return from southern Kentucky, this morning, I found the Adair County News, and read with interest the article on oil. Keep up the good work, people cannot find out or learn what is going on without some kind of advertising."

The Roy people are taking a lively interest in oil development in this section, and they are spending a goodly sum of money in Adair county.

Oil men returning from late visits to the Creelsboro field, some nineteen miles from Columbia, pronounce the wells drilled in there recently as very promising, and samples brought here show it to be of a superior grade, consequently it will command a good price on the market. The capacity of the wells is as yet unknown, not having been put on the pumps, but reports regarding their production are very flattering and they bid fair to be profitable producers.

Another good well was drilled in at a depth of 401 feet one day last week near Creelsboro, on the farm of A. C. Coffey, on Ramsey's Creek, Russell County, by the J. E. Carnahan Oil Company, Canton, Ohio. This is the third well brought in there by the Carnahan people, and they are now drilling on well No. 4, on the same farm. Mr. Bee Whitliss, field manager of the Carnahan Company, and who is giving this field his personal attention, expresses himself as very much encouraged with results already obtained in this section, and he advises us they are making active preparations to begin drilling in Adair county, near Columbia, at an early date. The Carnahan Company are responsible people with ample capital to carry out anything they undertake, and their field manager is a live wire who believes in doing things.

During recent months there has been no material gain in the manufacture of refined oil, while the demand is steadily increasing, and at present not only this country, but every other as well, is facing a shortage which is becoming a matter of considerable alarm. The last ten years have seen an enormous increase in the demand for petroleum products. This increase has been felt in all phases of the oil refining industry, but the greatest of all has been in the demand for motor gasoline, which has been caused by the tremendously rapid growth in the use of the automobile. During the ten year period the number of cars and trucks in service increased about 1,700 per cent. The production of crude oil in the United States increased only 85 per cent. It is expected the needs of the Government alone in 1920 will exceed 200,000,000 barrels.

Washington correspondent states the shortage situation has become so serious that the matter may be brought to the attention of Congress with the request that proper legislation be enacted to surmount the peril.

Mr. Lillburn Phelps, a prominent attorney of Jamestown, Ky., and who is president of the McWeed Oil Company, was in Columbia Saturday, en route home from Lexington and Louisville, where he had been for the purpose of purchasing equipment for the pumping of their well at Creelsboro. Mr. Phelps expressed himself quite freely regarding the bright prospects for good production in the Creelsboro section, and he also imparted the information that while on this trip he had met oil men from different sections of the country who were making diligent inquiry as to leases, etc., in this section. Columbia is the natural gateway to this field, and we predict that the time is not far distant when our citizens will begin to get a taste of a real oil boom.

In a letter just received from Mr. Elmo Pearce, who left here recently for his home in Blackwell, Okla., headvises that he has sold his home there, and is arranging to bring his family here at an early date. He also advises he expects to secure considerable capital there with which to develop the oil fields in this section. Mr. Pearce is a well posted man in the business, he has had wide experience in the production of oil, and when a man of his type is ready and willing to put his money and time into the development of our local territory it ought to remove all doubts existing in the minds of our citizens who are waiting to be shown.

Prominent oil men visiting Columbia Saturday and Sunday, last, were Messrs. Riley and Floyd Allenton, N. Y.; R. J. Boshier, Muncie, Ind.; E. L. Dearolph, from near Oil City, Pa.; and L. J. Burkhardt, of Ohio, the latter two gentlemen now located at Bowling Green, Ky., where they are interested in development in that section. The Messrs. Allen and Mr. Boshier are interested in the local oil company, the Trico Oil & Refining Co., and are doing all they can to towards making it a success. They also have acreage of their own located near Columbia. All of the gentleman named are very much pleased with local prospects, and they look for some good "finds" in this section at no distant date. Mr. Floyd Allen expects to return here within the next few days prepared to make arrangements for drilling in Adair county in the near future.

Field day exercises will be given by Lindsey Wilson Training School students on the campus, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 P. M. May 8. The events will be of considerable interest and a gold medal will be awarded the winner of the highest number of points.

Last Friday night while the sacred Master Mason's obligation was being administered, we took a survey of the lodge. What came into our mind is not the business of any man.

Big Fire at Edmonton.

The following is a correct statement of the big fire at Edmonton which occurred last Saturday night week: We take the account from the Glasgow Times, a paper that made every effort to send out a correct statement:

All the people who sustained losses are known to the people of Adair county.

Fire originating in the corn crib of Mr. Ben Shirley, Edmonton, at five o'clock Saturday afternoon, spread to adjoining property on Main Street, and caused a loss of $100,000 before the fire finally burned itself out.

It is estimated that insurance carried only totaled $40,000, and that in many instances the loss was complete.

The fire extended from the Shirley hotel to Van Zant's store, on Main St., and completely gutted everything in its path. Those losing property were:

Livery, feed and sale stable, Fred Wilson's residence, U. S. Shirley's garage and hardware store; small residence of U. S. Shirley; Presbyterian church; Kinnaird & Hughes' grocery; Kinnaird Bottling Works; C. H. Kinnaird's residence; Will Hughes' residence; Lucian Rowe's residence; Mrs. W. E. Vanzant's residence; P. P. Mitchell's residence; Willie Wilson's residence, barn and dry goods store, on which is estimated he had about $30,000 insurance; Bragg Drug Store; Bragg residence; The Peoples Bank was slightly damaged, as was The Edmonton Hotel.

Great difficulty was experienced in fighting the fire, as a high wind was blowing. The fire burned all night, and was visible for miles around.

This is the first big fire that has ever visited Edmonton, and the town will be a long time recovering from the damage done.

The Wilson store had a $25,000.00 stock of goods on hand; Kinnaird & Hughes had a $8,000.00 stock on hand, and the other stores carried stocks in proportion.

The remarkably low amount of insurance carried and the tremendous loss sustained, brings home forcibly the value of fire insurance as a protection and as a business investment.

High School Commencement Exercises.

The Baccalaureate Sermon for Columbia High School will be delivered by Dr. Frank J. Cheek, of Danville, at the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning May 9th.

Class night exercises will take place at the High School Gynasium Tuesday evening May 11 at eight o'clock.

Commencement exercises will be held in the Presbyterian Church Thursday evening, May 13th, at eight o'clock.

The public is cordially invited to attend all these exercises.

Big Farm Deal.

Mr. S. M. Burdette, of this place, a well-known farmer and mule dealer, purchased one day last week, the John A. Wathen farm, one mile north of Lebanon and on the Springfield pike. It contains 220 acres and is said to be one of the best farms in Marion County. The consideration forty-two thousand dollars. Mr. Burdette will be given possession January 1, 1921. This farm is all blue-grass land and is well improved. Over one-half of this farm is bottom land, and there are two good brick dwellings on the boundary, and all necessary barns, etc.

Still in Hospital.

Mrs. B. T. Wood, who sustained such painful injuries several days ago when she fell at home, is doing as well as could be expected. She is still in the Danville and Boyle County Hospital, where she is resting fairly comfortable. She will probably be compelled to remain there several weeks. The legion of friends of Mrs. Wood will all hope her injuries will not make her a permanent cripple.

The above is from Danville Messenger Mrs. Wood is known to a number of Columbians. Her husband is an uncle of Miss Jennie Garnett, this place and her friends here would be glad to learn of her early recovery.

An Unusual Investment.

Rare opportunity for investors. 7 per cent preferred stock, interest paid Semi-Annually, secured by first mortgage on valuable local Real Estate worth fifty per cent additional. A bonus of one share of Common Stock with every two shares of preferred purchased.

See us at once for particulars.

The Kemper Co.
Columbia, Ky.

Mrs. Bettie Carlisle Wood, who lived in Louisville, died last Wednesday morning. Her husband J. J. Wood, died some years ago. He was a brother of the late Mrs. Mary Garnett, mother of Miss Jennie Garnett, this place. Mrs. Wood was a native of Green County, but most of her life was spent at Lebanon where the funeral was held last Friday. She was 79 years old and a lady of many noble traits, and a well-known Christian character. Dr. J. N. Page, Mesdames Jennie Coffey and Ellen Wheat were cousins of the deceased.

Mr. John W. Wright, of Greensburg, purchased the Campbellsville Hotel one day last week from Mr. J. B. Davis. Mr. W. H. Wilson, who has been conducting it for several years, owns the furniture which he will likely sell to Mr. Wright. We learn that the former proprietor will remove from Campbellsville, and that he is thinking of locating in Louisville.

Dog Law Left In Full Force and Effect.

To County Clerk of Adair County:

I notice by your records that to date there are not as many dogs in your County licensed as there were in 1919.

I wish you would make every endeavor to collect license tax on all dogs, and devise some means whereby the people of your County may be informed that this law is in effect and will be enforced.

Yours Very Truly

W. C. Hanna.

Commissioner of Agriculture.

The above notice is sufficient to those who have failed to pay their dog tax.

Gone to Her Reward.

Last Wednesday night Mrs. Mary Logan, who was about 76 years old, died at her home three miles west of Columbia. She was in reasonably good health until a short time before her death when she contracted pneumonia.

She was the mother of W. A. Conover, who is a prosperous farmer, and a gentleman of high character.

Mr. Art Walker, of this place, was her brother, and she left a sister, Mrs. G. W. Waggener, who lives in Oklahoma. The well-known Logan boys were her stepsons.

She was a member of the old Walker family of this county, her ancestors coming to Adair from Virginia in the early settlement of the county. Men of honor and respectability.

Her parents were Mareu and Matuesday Walker and her uncles were Dr. T. Q. Walker, Kelsey and Lysandy Walker. They came from a stock of people that believed in doing right, and they did it, teaching their offsprings the same correct principles.

Mrs. Logan was a most excellent Christian lady and she will be greatly missed in the neighborhood where she so long resided. She was schooled in the Methodist doctrine, and had been a devout member of that Church since early girlhood.

The funeral was held at the home Friday and the interment was in the Walker cemetery, on the farm known as the Lysandy Walker farm, many friends being present.

Married.

On the morning of April 28th 1920. Miss Elizabeth Lee Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Butler, was married at the home of her grandmother to Mr. W. A. Stevenson a prominent Attorney of Commerce, Ga. Eld. Z. T. Williams being the officiating minister. Immediately after the marriage, they left by motor car for Louisville and Chicago.

Marriage License.

County Clerk Neat has issued the following marriage licenses since our last report.

John W. Morrison and Clara Wooten. Mont Sneed and E. O. Rupe.

John L. Sullivan and Irene Kearns. W. A. Stevenson and Elizabeth Lee Butler.

Mr. R. J. Bailey, who lives near Zion Church, barely escaped a very serious accident a few days ago. He was putting up a wire fence and the cleaver slipped off the wire, throwing the lever violently upon his head. A gash three inches long was cut and Mr. Bailey was senseless for a while. He was not able to look after his farm work for several days. He was able to ride into town last Friday, but it will be a week or two before he fully recovers.

The dramatic part of the third degree was put on most admirably in Columbia Lodge, E. and A. M. last Friday night, by Bro. W. A. Garnett, Master of Glensfork Lodge. Before reaching the brow of the hill of Mt. Mariah, there was a feature introduced that was not down on the program, that for a time furnished quite a lot of amusement, but only the informed were wise to it.

Fatal Accident.

Last Tuesday morning Theodore Bridgewater, thirteen years old, a son of Frank Bridgewater, a well-to-do farmer, who lives in the Flat Woods, about five miles from Columbia, met with an accident which may prove fatal. He went out into a field armed with a 32 revolver, his mission being to kill a hawk. He climbed upon a stump in order to get a good view, fell off, with the revolver in his hand which was accidentally discharged, the ball entering his abdomen. He gave an alarm and members of the family went to him.

Dr. O. P. Miller was summoned and had the boy brought to his office, in this place, and after probing and failing to locate the bullet, it was decided to convey the patient to Elizabeth Hospital, Lebanon, for an operation. If the intestines are not too badly lacerated, the boy will recover, but a chance for recovery was decidedly against him when Dr. Miller started in the afternoon with him.

Later, a message came Wednesday morning to Grissom & Patten, undertakers, stating that the boy was dead and to meet the remains with a hearse at Campbellsville.

The burial was near the home on Thursday.

The Lindsey-Wilson Training School will close the 14th of May. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached by Rev. J. S. Chandler, of Elkton, who is known and very much loved as a minister, in this place. The Commencement address will be delivered by Rev. Napier, who lives in Crescent Hill Kentucky.

The residence and contents of Franklin Young, Leslie, Cumberland County, were destroyed by fire on the night of the 28th of April. The loss is estimated at $4,000. Charles Young son of Mr. Franklin Young, got badly burned while trying to save some valuable papers.

Mr. Gordon Montgomery has removed his law office to the room over First National Bank, the same apartment in which his father, Mr. J. F. Montgomery, has his office.

Dr. W. J. Flowers has removed to the residence on Burksville street, that he recently purchased, known as the Marcum home.

We desire to extend our condolence to Dr. B. M. Taylor, Greensburg, and Mr. T. W. Taylor, Campbellsville, who were bereft last week, of their devoted mother, who passed away at Danville. The funeral was at her old home, Campbellsville.

Be at the Lindsey-Wilson next Friday night by 8 o'clock. Also attend Field Day on Saturday.

Treaty's Defeat Laid to Newberry's Vote.

Washington, D. C.—In connection with the conviction of Senator Truman H. Newberry of Michigan for conspiring to commit election fraud, and the imposition of a sentence of two years in prison, it is now a matter of comment in Washington that defeat of ratification of the peace treaty was due to the presence of Senator Newberry in the Senate.

The slender majority gained by Senator Newberry's presence in a seat which the Michigan court has adjudged him guilty of obtaining by criminal practices, enabled the Republicans to organize the Senate and control all the committees. It enabled Senator Lodge and other Republicans to "pack" the Foreign Relations Committee against the peace treaty and President Wilson, and thereby made it possible to load down the treaty with destructive reservations, which, after many months of wearying debate, resulted in the defeat of ratification. Had not Senator Newberry participated in the organization of the Senate, the Democrats would have retained control of the committees, Senator Hitchcock would have continued as chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, the treaty would have been reported out many months ago, unquestionably would have been ratified in a reasonable time, and the country would have been at peace, business would have been stabilized and industry would have resumed its normal course.

MAY NOT OUST HIM.

In this connection, it will be interesting to watch the course of the Republican Senate, holding a slender majority of but two votes, in the Ford-Newberry contest. Attorneys for Henry Ford are urging prompt action by the Senate, but the necessity, for partisan reasons, of maintaining this slight but effective margin probably will serve to keep the Republican majority from taking any prompt action to rid its number of a member, even though the stigma of conviction for crime is upon him. Nor is it expected that Newberry will resign—certainly not before his sentence is affirmed by a higher court—for though he will not likely appear in the Senate and participate in its deliberations, he will be "paired" in his absence, and under Senate custom, a "pair" is as effective as a vote.

Newberry is the third member of the Senate in the last 30 years to be convicted of criminal practices during tenure of office. The others were Senator John H. Mitchell of Oregon, who was a member of the Senate for 26 years, and Senator Joseph R. Burton of Kansas. Both were Republicans, and each was convicted of using his influence as Senator before Government Departments at Washington for corrupt purposes—Senator Mitchell in gaining contracts for a constituent and Burton for accepting a fee for appearing as attorney before the Post Office Department. Mitchell never served any of his sentence, nor did he resign from the Senate. He died in Portland, Ore., in 1905, before his term of imprisonment began. Burton served a term of six months. He did not resign from the Senate until his prison term began.

The most recent Senatorial investigation, of course, was in the Lorimer case, from Illinois. Lorimer was expelled in 1912 when the Senate adopted a resolution declaring "that corrupt methods and practices were employed in his election, and that the election, therefore, was invalid."

CREAT INTEREST IS SHOWN IN CAMPAIGN

Big Salvation Army Home Service Drive Comes May 10-20—Citizens Are Organizing.

Reports from all parts of the state show that great interest is being taken in Kentucky in the big Salvation Army Home Service Campaign, May 10-20. Citizens who are assisting the Salvation Army workers in the campaign are everywhere displaying the greatest enthusiasm, and it is predicted that the campaign will be a big success.

The Salvation Army is known by its works. For years the earnest self-denial of its officers and corps members has been appreciated by all who were acquainted with the splendid work done. Corps are now maintained in Louisville, Hopkinsville, Covington, Frankfort, Lexington, Ashland and Middlesboro. With sufficient money corps can be maintained in Paducah, Henderson, Owensboro, Bowling Green, Newport, Danville, Corbin and Maysville. It is hoped that enough money can be raised during the campaign to establish a state headquarters in Louisville, with a secretary in many counties of the state, so that the work may be pushed with renewed zeal and vigor.

SALVATION ARMY BUYS "Y" BUILDING

Hopkinsville Business Men Pledge Their Hearty Support to Further the Work.

The Salvation Army has bought the Y. M. C. A. building at Hopkinsville. Col. William Evans, of Pittsburg, the chief provincial officer, and Brigadier David E. Dunham, divisional officer, of Cincinnati, recently visited Hopkinsville, where they met a number of prominent citizens and consummated the deal.

Seven of the leading business men of Hopkinsville were ready to get behind the movement and pledged their hearty support at the meeting. Others prominent in their offers of support were Dr. Leonard Doolan, pastor of the First Baptist Church, formerly of Louisville; Rev. A. R. Kasey, pastor of the First Methodist Church, and Rev. Everett S. Smith, pastor of the First Christian Church. Members of the Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A. were also present.

The Y. M. C. A. building was erected some years ago, but a debt has hung over it. A Hopkinsville bank held a mortgage and filed suit to foreclose and the Salvation Army bid in the property. The building is in the center of the city, is built of concrete blocks, and has three stories. On the first floor is a central assembly room, on the second floor will be the Salvation Army corps headquarters, and the third floor will be used for emergency cases. Many changes will be made in the building, and when completed it will be ideal as a community social welfare center.

Envoy Henry Vallier has been in charge of the Salvation Army work in Hopkinsville for the past five years.

GOVERNOR COOLIDGE ACCEPTS.

Governor Calvin Coolidge, of Massachusetts, has accepted the chairmanship for New England of the Salvation Army 1920 Home Service Appeal, according to advices received by Commander Evangeline Booth, head of the organization in this country. Announcement of Franklin K. Lane's acceptance as national chairman for the Salvation Appeal was made recently.

"The Salvation Army," said the Governor in accepting the chairmanship, "has never ceased to instill true Americanism in the minds and hearts of those people who, because of their circumstances and position in the world, this wonderful organization alone has been able to reach. The Salvation Army taught its great lesson of Americanism on the firing line of France; it is carrying on the same ideals during this trying period of reconstruction."

The pay of Salvation Army officers runs from $9.50 per week to less than $30 per week. Commander Evangeline Booth, who is in command of the Salvation Army throughout America, had an income of less than $1,000 for the past year, according to the tax man.

President Wilson says, "No one who has watched, even superficially, the work and progress of the Salvation Army, can fail to feel the deepest and most sincere interest in its success."

Sixty influenza patients were taken care of by the Salvation Army during the recent epidemic in Parkersburg. Nearly 170 were nursed through the great epidemic of 1918 in Charleston.

"The efforts of the Salvation Army are worthy of the highest appreciation," says Sir Robert Borden, prime minister of Canada.

Hundreds of colored girls and women have been cared for within the past three or four years at the Salvation Army maternity home for the colored, in Cincinnati, O.

COMMANDER OF THE SALVATION ARMY

Commander Evangeline Booth, head of the Salvation Army in the United States, will leave for Europe on important business immediately at the close of the Salvation Army's 1920 Home Service Appeal, May 10-20.

The Commander will not only inspect the American Section of the Salvation Army work now going on with the American troops at Coblenz, Germany, and other points along the Rhine, but will confer in London with her brother, General Bramwell Booth, world head of the Salvation Army.

The Commander intends to remain in London ten days. She will go not only to Germany, in the interests of her organization, but to Belgium, where there has been a vast increase recently in Salvation Army work. In addition the Commander will hold an important meeting in Paris.

The Salvation Army is the only relief organization with the American Forces in Germany on the east side of the Rhine. It has five large soldiers' clubs in the Rhine country.

ALL KENTUCKIANS ARE MADE WELCOME

Booth Memorial Hospital at Covington Is Operated By the Salvation Army.

Kentuckians from every part of the State will always find a hospitable welcome at the famous Booth Memorial Hospital, at Covington, whether they have money or not. Support of this hospital is one object of the Salvation Army's Home Service Campaign, May 10-20.

The Booth Memorial Hospital was the home of the late Amos Shinkle, the founder and promoter of the suspension bridge connecting Covington and Cincinnati. When the home was erected many years ago it was famous all over the United States as one of the finest in this section of the country.

Mr. Shinkle left the beautiful home to the Salvation Army upon his death, and since that time it has been used as a hospital. It is strictly un denominational. Men and women from all churches and representing all creeds are on the advisory board and the various committees. They are among the most prominent citizens of Covington. There is strictly a labor of love, and they receive no compensation. The same care and attention is given to patients who have no money as to those who can afford to pay part or whole of the fees required. Not a single patient without money has ever been turned away from this hospital, although many patients who offer to pay are not received because of lack of room.

Thirty per cent of all the cases in Booth Memorial Hospital have been charity patients. This record is by far the best of any hospital in the United States.

The medical staff of the hospital is made up of the best-known physicians in this section. Dr. J. Risk Meek, a Pendleton county boy, is chief of staff. In connection with the hospital a nurses' training school is maintained. Miss Catherine A. Webb is superintendent of nurses. She is an experienced nurse and has had post-graduate work in five of the largest hospitals in the country. Seven of the graduates of the school went into Red Cross work during the war, and two of them were overseas. They were Miss Dunlap, who recently passed away, and Leannah Sorrell, formerly of Pendleton county, Kentucky. Both of them rendered splendid service.

Great interest is being shown in Booth Memorial Hospital in all sections of Kentucky because patients are received from all parts of the state, charitable as well as full-pay and part-pay patients.

Salvation Army officers give 10 per cent of their meager earnings to charity. During the week of March 28th to April 5th, known to them as "Self-Denial Week," they cheerfully gave "what's left."

The Salvation Army has a commissioned officer staff of more than 18,000 working in 66 countries and speaking 48 different languages.

The Salvation Army knows no service too difficult, no task too great.

EXPENDITURES OF SALVATION ARMY SHOW $13,257,552

Commander Evangeline Booth Makes Public Annual Home Service Fund Accounting.

EXPANSION OF WORK IN ALL DEPARTMENTS NOTED

Popular Organization's Budget for 1920 Totals $10,000,000—Details of Figures for 1919 and 1920.

New York, April 12.—Expansion and advancement in every department of Salvation Army work as a result of the 1919 Home Service Fund are shown in a full accounting of that Fund just made public by Commander Evangeline Booth at the National Headquarters of the organization here. The financial statement, which is of January 31, 1920, shows total expenditures throughout the country up to and including that date of $13,257,552, with a remainder on hand for the four months to May 31, of $910,140.

Details of the statement disclose that the sum of $1,441,185 was expended up to January 31, for the maintenance of 939 corps and outposts in all parts of the United States. This item includes rentals of halls and their maintenance, salaries of 1,800 officers, the expenses of work for children and young people, the cost of all local relief work of whatever nature, and such incidental expenditures as postage, printing, stationery and the like.

In the period covered by the report the sum of $1,638,429 was expended by thirty-four provincial and divisional headquarters for fresh-air farms and camps, comprehensive relief work of a special nature amongst the poor, the sick and the distressed. These headquarters are charged with the oversight and direction of all corps and similar activities in their jurisdiction as well as the extension of Salvation Army effort to unoccupied fields and localities. Hence, this item includes also salaries of executive officers, of clerical and other employees, necessary traveling expenses, postage, the cost of advertising, publicity and a portion of the expenditures incidental to the organization of the financial campaigns.

Other items detailed in the report include the sum of $621,099, representing administrative and other expenses borne by National Headquarters in New York and Territorial Headquarters in Chicago; $187,309 representing the cost of operating and maintaining 25 rescue homes and maternity hospitals, a general hospital and one for children, 3 children's homes and 11 slum settlements and nurseries; and $400,000 apportioned according to the 1919 budget for the pension fund for aged or disabled officers.

Most significant, as indicating the remarkable advancement made by the Salvationists during the past year as a result of the 1919 Fund contributed by the country, are the lifting of mortgages to the amount of $1,831,193 and the outlay of $7,038,894 for new buildings and additions, making a total of $8,910,523.

Hitherto demands upon the Salvation Army's efforts have been so much greater than its income that it has labored under a tremendous indebtedness. Its officers have been reduced to part pay year after year, and the organization has been handicapped in its operations.

Not All Mortgages Liquidated. Only a part of the mortgage indebtedness was paid off last year, however; the increased demands upon the Army everywhere in the country being so great that increased and new facilities for hospitals, rescue homes and other Army institutions called for the outlay of more than $7,000,000. Army officers hope that the response to the 1920 Home Service Appeal will be such as to permit of the wiping out of much of the remaining mortgage indebtedness, provide for the maintenance of the organization's established activities and make urgently needed extensions and development possible.

The 1919 balance sheet shows the following:

Expenditure	Reserve
To Jan. 31.	To May 31.
For support of corps activities, $1,441,185.15	$447,236.41
Maintenance of 34 provincial & divisional hqrs., 1,888,429.62	297,133.91
Maintenance of national & territorial hqrs., 621,099.97	63,474.01
Maintenance of institutions for women and children, 187,309.75	102,297.01
Mortgages and properties, 2,919,628.42
Total expenditures for eight months 13,257,552.94	$910,140.51
Reserve for four months, $910,140.51
Grand total (Amount contributed in 1919), 14,167,693.45

The Army's 1920 budget, asking for $10,000,000, calls for $4,000,000 to carry on its evangelistic and relief work in 1,000 separate centers; $3,000,000 for relief work among the poor, sick and unfortunate, work for mothers and children, and other social work under provincial and divisional headquarters; $250,000 for the maintenance of national and territorial headquarters; $400,000 for rescue homes, nurseries, hospitals, slum posts and other institutions for women and children; $150,000 for the retired officers' pension fund, and $2,200,000 for the liquidation of mortgages and the acquiring of new properties made necessary by the Army's 1920 extension program.

S. A. ACCOUNTS FOR FUNDS COLLECTED IN LAST CAMPAIGN

Colonel William Evans Makes Public Financial Statement for "O K" Province.

More than a million and a half dollars will have been spent by the Salvation Army in the "O. K." Province during the twelve months ending May 31, according to the official statement just made by Provincial Officer Colonel William Evans.

Of this amount $1,296,750.00 had been spent on January 31 last and there remained a reserve of $222,034.00 to cover the amount required between then and the end of May, making the grand total $1,518,784.00.

The greatest demand made upon the funds available for this province, which includes Ohio, Western Pennsylvania, Kentucky, West Virginia and Tennessee, was in the liquidation of mortgages on the property of the Army, to which $100,755.18 was devoted, and in the purchase and erection of new buildings to accommodate the greatly increased work of the organization here. This cost $568,697.59.

The debt which presented such a handicap to the work of the Army in this, as well as in other provinces, was the natural result of a long period of sacrifice, open-handed charity and insufficient support. For years it has been the custom throughout the country to send the needy to the Salvation Army where they always have received prompt and cheerful help; but it was too often overlooked that some return was absolutely essential if the institution was to maintain its feet.

The necessary support was formerly not forthcoming in the offerings cast into the tambourine passed in meetings and the Army has until now found it imperative to mortgage its property in order to secure money for the carrying on of the work. This old order changed for the better last year when the new plan of making a single annual Home Service Appeal to the whole country was adopted and when, for the first time in its history, the Army was enabled to liquidate any considerable amount of its debts and to pay the full salary of its officers, scanty though that is.

Support of corps activities for the eight months ending with January took $139,046.00 while there remained a reserve of $116,300.00 to carry through May. This money covers the rental of buildings in places where the Army does not own its establishments, lighting, heating and maintenance of these places as well as those actually owned by the organization, covers the salaries paid the workers in this province and includes traveling expenses, stationery, telephones and printing.

Maintenance of provincial and divisional headquarters activities cost $376,650.00, while $105,733.00 still remains unexpended and in reserve to maintain the work for the four remaining months.

These provincial and divisional headquarters exist for the purpose of supervising the work of the corps and the extension and development of the Salvation Army's undertakings generally within their territory. This expenditure therefore represents the rentals and maintenance of buildings used for officers and headquarters, salaries and the expense of operating fresh air camps and relief work.

This province's share, $22,637, went to bearing the expenses of national headquarters, while the national pension fund which exists to provide for officers who have grown old in the service entitled the deduction of $50,060 more from the grand total of the provincial budget. The women's work for the Province took $39,973.

The 1919 balance sheet for the Province shows the following:

Expenditure	Reserve
To Jan. 31.	To May 31.
For the support of Corps Activities, $139,046.33	$116,300.97
Maintenance of Provincial and Divisional Headquarters, 376,650.16	105,733.45
Maintenance National Headquarters, 22,627.80
Women's Social, 39,973.00
Pension Fund, 50,000.00
Mortgages, 100,755.18
Properties, 568,697.59

Following a careful preliminary survey of needs and requirements the 1920 budget for this province has been set at $3,000,000. This money will be raised in the May Appeal and spent here during the next 12 months for the welfare purposes definitely explained in the foregoing paragraphs.

The Salvation Army makes a public appeal upon the principle that money, a medium of exchange, commands the material things which constitute relief for the worthy poor, the helpless and needy, the fallen and the stricken; upon the principle that the officers and soldiers of the Army have no desire to acquire or accumulate for their personal emolument any stores of money or chattels, but instead have dedicated their lives to the work of relieving others; upon the principle that while its members must live decently, and are therefore entitled to shelter and food, they seek no reward in this life beyond the respect and appreciation of their fellow men and women, and that they are especially fitted, in consequence, both in spirit and experience, to handle money judiciously and with utmost wisdom.

GOV. MORROW TO COMMANDER BOOTH

Kentucky Executive Strongly Endorses Work of the Salvation Army in This State.

Governor Edwin P. Morrow of Kentucky recently sent to Commander Evangeline Booth of the Salvation Army a strong letter in support of the Army's second Home Service campaign during the period, May 10-20. Governor Morrow is the general chairman of the campaign in Kentucky with former Chief Justice Henry S. Barker of Louisville as active chairman. Governor Morrow's letter follows:

"My Dear Commander:—Wherever the Salvation Army 'carries on,' there we find a need supplied; a foot-sore unfortunate comforted; a hungry one fed; an aching heart given surcease of sorrow.

"I am appealing directly to the great heart of Kentucky to respond generously to the call of the Salvation Army in this second Home Service Campaign, urging our people to rally to the support of an institution that always has done and now stands ready to do its full share, brimful and running over, for the homeless and the afflicted.

"With my best wishes for your continued success in your great work, 'Believe me to be, sincerely your friend,

"EDWIN P. MORROW, Governor."

KENTUCKIANS SEE HOW MONEY IS SPENT

This State Is in the "O. K." Province of the Salvation Army With Four Other States.

Kentucky is in what is termed the "O. K." province of the Salvation Army's national organization. This province includes Western Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee. Provincial headquarters are maintained at Pittsburg and Col. William Evans is in charge.

By the end of May 1920, the "O. K." province will have spent more than a million and a half dollars. More than $100,000 was set aside to take up mortgages and more than a half million was required for new buildings, etc., demanded by the increased work of the province.

Support of corps activities in the province calls for nearly $3,000,000. Nearly a half million is required for provincial and divisional activities, a considerable part of which is devoted to fresh air camps and relief work. About $50,000 was taken for the national pension fund for officers grown old in the service and the special work for women totaled nearly $40,000.

NOTED CATHOLIC FOR SALVATION ARMY

Cardinal Gibbons Gives His Blessings to National Leaders in Their Work.

One of the most prominent prelates in the Catholic church in America is Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore. The Cardinal is a strong believer in and supporter of the Salvation Army. Cardinal Gibbons has just sent the following letter to Franklin K. Lane, ex-Secretary of the Interior, who is the national chairman of the Army's second Home Service Fund campaign drive, May 10-20:

"My Dear Mr. Lane:—Let me congratulate you on taking up the good work of helping that most deserving organization, the Salvation Army, in its 1920 appeal for maintenance.

"Its splendid self-sacrificing work not only during the world war, but for years prior thereto, has endeared the Salvation Army to everyone.

"May your work and that of your friends and associates in this national appeal meet with the fullest measure of success.

"My blessings and best wishes, faithfully yours,

(Signed) "J. CARD. GIBBONS, Archbishop of Baltimore."

The Salvation Army has given out its recipe for doughnuts. This is the formula from which all the crullers for the men of the A. E. F. were made. There is something magic in it, for it worked wonders. Here it is:

Five cups flour, 2 cups sugar, 5 teaspoons baking powder, 1 saltspoonful salt, 2 eggs, ¼ cup milk, 1 tablespoonful lard.

Knead and cut and drop into boiling lard. The lassies who made these doughnuts in France say that a happy smile, added to the doughnuts at the time of serving makes them even more delightful.

The activities of the Salvation Army are being carried on in 66 countries. This far-flung organization holds meetings and conducts its work in 40 different languages. In the United States alone its enterprises embrace: field evangelic work, hotels for the poor, industrial homes for the unemployed, slum posts and nurseries in the great cities, rescue homes and maternity hospitals, children's homes and relief work in prisons, besides other forms of relief, such as holiday dinners and the distribution of free ice and coal.

WHAT IS DONE WITH THE MONEY?—QUERY

Salvation Army Shows How More Than $14,000,000 Is Spent Annually in the United States.

"What is done with the money?" That is one of the first questions put to workers in the Salvation Army's second Home Service Campaign which will reach its culmination during the period May 10-20 when the drive will be fully on.

It is a legitimate question and one which the officers of this great organization are eager to answer because it shows the splendid work done.

According to the official financial audit just made public at the national headquarters in New York City, there had been spent to January 31, 1920, more than $13,000,000, with a remainder on hand for the four months to May 31 of over $900,000.

Nearly a million and a half dollars were spent to maintain the 939 corps of the Army in all parts of the United States. This was for rental of halls, etc., work for children and young people, cost of local relief and incidental expenses, stationery, etc., and officers' salaries. This last was not so large an item as might be expected as not a single officer in the Salvation Army has a salary sufficiently large to call for the payment of an income tax.

Another million and a half was spent by 34 provincial and divisional headquarters for fresh air farms and camps, special relief work, etc. Nearly $200,000 was used for maintaining 25 rescue homes and maternity hospitals, a general hospital and one for children, three children's homes and 11 slum settlements and nurseries and $400,000 for the pension fund for aged or disabled officers.

The Salvation Army believes in paying its debts as quickly as possible. During the year mortgages to the amount of nearly $2,000,000 were paid off.

To show how fast the work of the Salvation Army is developing, it is only necessary to point to the fact that over $7,000,000 was spent on new buildings during the year.

AMERICAN LEGION HEAD GIVES BOOST

Says Soldiers Were Strong For the Salvation Army in France During the War and Since.

No organization that saw service with the American soldiers in the great world war is dearer to the hearts of the men than the Salvation Army, according to Franklin D'Olier, National Commander of the American Legion. In a recent statement regarding the Salvation Army's second Home Service Fund campaign, May 10-20, Commander D'Olier said:

"The American people owe a great debt of gratitude to the Salvation Army, and just how great this debt is they have only to ask their sons, brothers and husbands who faced death in the trenches on the battlefields of France. Every man who wore the American uniform is fully aware of the manner in which the soldiers of the Salvation Army suffered all sorts of privations, faced the danger of battle and entirely forgot themselves in order to care for the soldiers fighting for the cause of liberty and humanity.

"There is not an ex-service man who is not glad to do whatever he can to help the Salvation Army, and I feel safe in saying that the people of this country will be satisfied to take the word of those who fought in France, that the Salvation Army is an organization that deserves the support of the American people.

"The service of the Salvation Army during the war is but an example of the noble work these men and women have been doing for years among those who needed their services, and today they are carrying on a great work among suffering humanity throughout the world, just as they have in years gone by and just as they will in years to come.

"The campaign that the Army is to put on at an early date is one that I am sure everyone will lend support to. You may rest assured that wherever you find an ex-service man you find a friend of the Salvation Army. There were several organizations that did great work with the troops, but none of them excelled the Salvation Army, and none of them occupy a warmer place in the hearts of the American ex-service men than the Salvation Army."

Each of the last five Presidents of the United States has seen fit publicly to invite the attention of the nation to the Salvation Army and its work for "the betterment of humanity and the making of bad citizens into good ones," as President Wilson put it. President Roosevelt praised the Army for "working effectively in those dark regions where, save for its force, only evil is powerful." President Taft asserted that its "practical methods of charity are of the highest usefulness."

The accounts of the Salvation Army are audited regularly and at frequent intervals. Every cent expended goes for the needy. The army furnished 8,699,000 meals free to penniless persons in the United States last year. Feeding the hungry is only one of its many activities.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

FOR CONGRESS.

We are authorized to announce RALPH GILBERT, of Shelby county, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this, the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky. State Primary Election Saturday, August 7, 1920.

We are authorized to announce FRANK L. RIPPY, of Anderson County, a Democratic candidate for Congress, in the Eighth district, subject to the action of the State primary August 7, 1920.

COX WINS IN THE STATE.

The County Mass Conventions held last Saturday were generally harmonious throughout the State. Nearly all the counties have reported and unless there are changes from the action of the county conventions, Gov. James M. Cox, of Ohio, will show a majority of the Democratic delegates for him for the Presidency. Louisville sends to the State Convention which meets this day Tuesday, an uninstructed delegation, but Gov. Cox proved the favorite out in the State. The wet sentiment was manifested in a few counties, as being for a wet plank. Adair county, as will be seen from the proceedings of the convention, sends an uninstructed delegation to the Louisville Convention.

"The Illinois primary was marked by most vicious kinds of electioneering tactics. Judges and other officials were kidnapped, ballots were stolen and voters were terrorized, and to add to the gayety of the occasion, there was gunplay. It was an election worthy of the present Chicago administration." Thus is the recent Republican primary in Illinois described by a special writer in a Republican newspaper, the Washington Post, and the writer is secretary of the Republican platform advisory committee. And delegates selected by such methods will go to the Chicago Republican Convention to assist in nominating the party's candidate for President. The campaign leading up to the primary was characterized by the same writer as "a disgrace to the Union."

Mr. W. L. Moss, of Pineville, who had much to do with the passing of the new road law, was here last Monday and addressed a large number of Adair County citizens. He explained the details of the law which becomes effective in June, and predicted that ere long pikes would be built all over Kentucky. He stated that the money was ready, but just now it is hard to secure the services of road engineers, but that the work of building 3000 miles of pike would start as quickly as possible. Columbia will get three pikes, one from Elizabethtown, one from Somerset, The other from here to Burksville.

Mr. Bryan not only carried Nebraska for himself, but he elected ten district delegates out of sixteen. There is one thing that can be said of Mr. Bryan, and that is that his supporters know exactly how he stands on all public questions. Watch the proceedings of the San Francisco Convention when it meets and see if Mr. Edwards and other wets do not get a licking. In our opinion Mr. Bryan will name the candidate for the Presidency.

Last week the News stated that Louisville would annex Jeffersonville and New Albany. We got the information from another paper, but we knew at the same time there was no inter-State law that would warrant such procedure. We handed out the statement as it came to us, and that is all there is to it. Furthermore, as matters have been running in Louisville of late, we did not know what in the devil had taken place.

In the Republican ranks Senator Johnson and General Wood are running neck and neck. Neither one of them will be nominated at Chicago. The bosses know at this time the man who will be named, but no mention of him will be made until the nominating speech has been delivered. When the word goes down the line the nomination will be quickly made.

So far as we have been able to learn the Democrats of Adair county, who will go to the State convention, will favor an uninstructed delegation to the San Francisco Convention, and will so vote in the State convention which convenes in Louisville, this Tuesday at noon.

A thief entered Elsie Janis room at the Seelbach, Louisville, one night last week and stole $40,000 worth of pearls and diamonds. A little precaution would have saved this wealth to the owner. A secure place to put valuables when stopping at a hotel in the city is in the office safe.

Senator Reed, of Missouri, was defeated in his home state two to one. He wanted to go as a delegate at large to the San Francisco Convention, but his disloyalty to the Democratic party in the Senate, gave him a black eye. He is a dead one.

Senator Beckham, who is a level headed politician, stands for an uninstructed delegation to the San Francisco Convention.

The State Democratic Convention will be at 12 m. to-day.

Democratic County Convention.

Pursuant to a call issued by the State Central Committee, Democrats of Adair county met in Convention last Saturday afternoon, May 1st, at 2 o'clock, the object of the meeting being to name delegates to attend the State Convention which will convene in Louisville Tuesday May 4.

T. E. Jeffries, Chairman of the Adair County Democratic Committee, called the convention to order and stated its object whereupon Gordon Montgomery was elected Chairman, who came forward, and before taking his seat, made a splendid five minute speech, setting forth what he believed that the convention should do.

J. E. Murrell was then elected Secretary.

On motion, the following gentlemen were appointed to draft a set of resolutions: L. C. Winfrey, Herschel Breeding, Ernest Flowers, Wood Paxton, Clarence Page

The committee retired and in a few minutes reported as follows:

We, the Democrats of Adair county in convention assembled, hereby voice our approval of the administration of President Woodrow Wilson and we congratulate the American people that, during the World War, they had his wise and patriotic counsel to guide them during those perilous times, and we further congratulate them that he has, all the time since the cessation of hostilities, stood firm and immovable for a proper and equitable adjustment of both Domestic and Foreign affairs; his every effort to promote the peace of the world.

We endorse the stand of President Wilson on The League of Nations as it was submitted to the United States Senate by President Wilson, without reservations.

We denounce as unpatriotic and disloyal the efforts of Senator Lodge and his followers in opposing the Treaty of Peace and the League of Nations for no other reason but to destroy the prestige of Woodrow Wilson in the United States and abroad.

We call attention of the people of Kentucky to the pre-election promises of Gov. Morrow and the Republican party, that they would, if placed in power, abolish useless offices and officers, and would reduce our taxes. Upon these promises they were placed in power, and a Republican General Assembly has met and adjourned, and they have utterly failed to carry out either of said promises. On the contrary they have increased instead of lowering our taxes, and as an instance of this increase we call the attention of the voters of Adair county to the fact that for the year 1920, the tax rate in Adair county for State and local purpose will be $1.40 on each $100.00 which is 25 cents on the $100.00 higher than it ever was before, and that the assessment of property upon which this rate is levied is very much larger than ever before in the history of Adair county.

We favor an uninstructed delegation from Kentucky to the San Francisco convention, and we direct the delegates, hereinafter named to work and vote in the State convention to that end.

We favor an organization of the Democratic party in Kentucky, and we favor the election to the members of the various committees democrats, who have only the welfare of the State, Nation and county and party in view, and we oppose the election of committeemen whose purpose is to build up a machine with the intention to promote the candidacy of any officer.

100 good Democrats of Adair county were named as delegates.

E. C. Page,
Herschel Breeding,
Wood Paxton,
Ernest Flowers,
L. C. Winfrey,
Committee.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

After the reading of the names the convention adjourned.

Gordon Montgomery, Chairman, horse several weeks ago, has recovered sufficient to be up and going around, attending to his affairs.

J. J. Parson and Strong Hill spent a few days in Louisville the first of the week.

Several from this place attended Quarterly meeting, at Tarter's Chapel, on the 27th.

Uncle Robert O. Keltner, while returning from the post office one night last week, received a fall that bruised him up considerably, but nothing serious. His physician, Dr. L. C. Nell, dressed his wounds, and reports that he will be out again in a few days.

Uncle Charlie Yates is another one of our oldest citizens. We are glad to report is able to be up and comes down daily after his mail, and sees after his affairs about home. Uncle Charlie informed us that he has two of the best mule colts that he has had for many years. This means something in the mule line, for in the last few years he certainly has had some good ones.

Misses Bell and Sparks, students of the L. W. T. S., at Columbia, passed through here last Friday, en route for their homes in the Red Lick community, where they will spend a few days with their relatives before returning.

Messrs. Calvin Claycomb and Rufus Price, of Bliss, were in our midst last Thursday. They report the farming interest in their community getting along fine. All the farmers preparing for a large crop of corn and tobacco and a good prospect for a pike from Columbia to Gradyville.

Mr. Virgil Boston, one of East Fork's best business men, as well as farmers, was in our midst last Friday. He reports that on the account of so much rain, the farmers living on the creeks that have bottom land to cultivate, have not done much toward farming up to the present.

We take it that from the number of wagon loads of fertilizer that has been hauled from Columbia through this place and the number of loads that have been hauled from Greensburg to this section, not saying anything about the cars that has been sold by the merchants of our town, that this section of old Adair county will have to spread herself if she don't her products will not bring enough money to pay for the fertilizer used, at

Kentucky Democrats, You Are Entitled to Express Your Preference

If you have a choice for the Democratic nomination for President, you are entitled to express it, Kentucky Democrats.

But you have but one chance to do so.

You have been called to meet in mass conventions in your county seats at 2 o'clock, Saturday afternoon, May 1, for the purpose of registering your choice.

Neglect the opportunity thus offered, send your county delegates without instructions, and your one chance to exercise your sovereign right of saying who will be your standard-bearer in November has slipped away.

Exercise Your Prerogative

Will you delegate your franchise to a few men in the crisis which confronts your party and your country or will you assert your prerogative as a citizen and a Democrat to choose your leader?

That you may be able to register your choice intelligently these facts about the candidate Ohio Democracy has put forward, as a man whom the Genius of America has trained for just this hour, are presented.

A Typically American Career

BORN on a farm "of poor but honest parents," James M. Cox became a teacher, then newspaper reporter, then an editor, then secretary to a Congressman, then owner of a prosperous newspaper property, then a member of Congress, and then Governor of Ohio—the only Democrat ever elected to that office three times.

Always On the Square

ASK any union labor leader about Governor Cox and he will tell you that no man or group control him, that he is always on the square.

Ask the business men of Ohio and they will tell you that he understands business problems and that he has courage and ability for any emergency.

Ohio's Votes Are Needed

OHIO's electoral votes are needed this year; Cox can swing them for Democracy.

Go to the mass convention in your county seat at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, May 1, and select as your delegates representative forward-looking Democrats, who hold good government and the interest of the party paramount to all else, and instruct them to support the candidacy of Governor James M. Cox.

Miss Maud Wilmore, student of the L. W. T. S., at Columbia, spent a day or so at home last week.

We were all agreeably surprised one evening last week, when our old friend and physician, Dr. S. Simmons, of Greensburg, called in to see us. The Dr. is looking fine and reports his family well and well-pleased with their new home. He also informed us that he had a fine practice and was highly pleased with his location. On his return Miss Artie Collins accompanied him to spend a few weeks with her sister.

Mr. Arvest Hill, of Adairville, spent a few days of last week with his relatives at this place

On his return his brother, Edward, accompanied him home. The young Mr. Hill have formed a partnership in the machine business. They are both natural born mechanics, and they know all about machinery. They will engage in business at Russellville. No doubt there is a bright future in store for the young men.

GENERAL

MERCHANDISE

WHY SENATOR REED IS UNPOPULAR

LOUISVILLE POST.

The recent refusal of the Democrats of Missouri at their convention to send Senator Reed, of that State, as a delegate to the Democratic convention at San Francisco has caused much comment, and has led particularly to inquiry as to the cause of the personal ill-will shown toward Senator Reed by members of his own party.

It is true that when Senator Reed is in opposition he arouses a high degree of personal animosity. A glance at his manner of conducting himself in the Senate as reported stenographically in the Congressional Record is sufficient to account for this.

Let us take, for example, a discussion that occurred on the Senate floor last week. The bill under consideration was one providing increased pay in the navy. The discussion was between Senator Jones, of New Mexico, and Senator Reed. Both are for increased pay in the navy, and both declared they would vote for it. But simply because Senator Jones did not come to the conclusion along the same road that Senator Reed came to it, the latter attacked Senator Jones in the most venomous manner.

Senator Reed called attention to the fact that the Shipping Board, also a branch of the government made it known to the employees of the navy that they could secure higher pay under the Shipping Board than under the navy. On this Senator Reed said: "Whoever was responsible for it in the Shipping Board ought to have been instantly kicked out of his job within ten minutes after the fact was discovered. . . . For the Shipping Board to get the pay roll of the employees of the American navy, and then write each employe as he came into port than they would raise his wages, is about as intolerable, as impudent, and as senseless a thing as I have ever heard of in my life."

Upon this Senator Jones interrupted to make this inquiry: "Does the Senator believe that because a man has enlisted in the navy from patriotic motives he should be prevented from knowing what wages he could obtain in other branches of the service, and that he should be kept in ignorance of these facts?"

To which Senator Reed replied. "The Senator has the most peculiar mind of any man I ever knew. I think if he were to run the Lord's Prayer through his intellect he would be able to bring it out covered with suspicion and bearing evidence of artifice and fraud calculated to deceive even the Almighty. . . . The government was bidding against itself. I did not talk about keeping men in ignorance, or anything of that sort. That is all the reply I care to make to that kind of a question. It was not a good-faith question."

Senator Jones naturally resented this tone, and said so: "Mr. President, I resent the latter statement made by the Senator, that the question was not asked in good faith. I insist that the Senator's argument was based upon the assumption that these enlisted men should not have information as to what was being paid in other branches of the service. While it may be true that the Shipping Board was bidding against some other branches of service, yet what I sought to do was to get the views of the Senator as to whether the remedy which he suggested was the proper remedy or not, whether you should keep these men in ignorance or whether you shall devise some plan for rectifying this evil, which we all admit. . . . The question I asked the Senator was asked in good faith for the purpose of developing that idea."

Senator Reed, however was not contented to let the matter drop. "The Senator," he said, "speaks of the remedy I suggested and makes a speech about it I had not suggested any remedy nor said a single word about a remedy. It is only another one of those peculiar intellectual quirks of the gentleman in which he so frankly indulges, I had not gotten along to the point of discussing the question of remedy at all.

The close of discussion proved that both Senators were for increasing the pay in the navy, but can one wonder that Senator Reed is not popular with his colleagues when he discusses matters in the frame of mind and in the manner pictured above? He was at one time a Prosecuting Attorney in Missouri and he has carried the manners of the prosecutor into the discussion of public questions in the Senate Chamber and out of it.

Those who have heard him on the Senate floor know that he speaks habitually to other Senators with a scornful superciliousness. Senator Reed hates everything and everybody that does not entirely agree with him. Hate engenders hate. That is why the opposition to Senator Reed is so bitter and so intense.

Senators Worried

By Newberry Case.

Washington, D. C.—Senate Republicans must now get down to real business on the Ford-Newberry election contest case. Senator Newberry and sixteen co-defendants were convicted of criminal conspiracy in the United States District Court of Michigan. Newberry was sentenced to two years in prison and to pay a fine of $10,000.

Senator Newberry will fight his case through all of the courts. In the meantime, what will the Republican leaders of the Senate do?

Months ago supporters of Henry Ford, who ran against Newberry for the Senate, charged that Ford had been cheated out of the election, and demanded an investigation. Senator James E. Watson, Republican, chairman of the subcommittee of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, authorized to investigate the charges, but has gotten nowhere with the inquiry. The Republican majority in the Senate is so small that the ousting of Newberry might prove fatal. But, since Newberry has been convicted, the wise partisans are afraid to stand by him lest there be a reaction against the Republicans, and Newberry has become a "white elephant" on the hands of the Republicans. They are afraid to give him up, and afraid not to.

It is now urged by the Democrats that the "full and complete investigation" of the Ford-Newberry election ordered by the Senate "proceed without further delay."

No matter what finally becomes of the peace treaty, there will always remain in the minds of its friends doubt as to the efforts of the Republican leaders to reach a compromise on Article X. The backing and filling of Senator Lodge caused many close observers in the Senate to list him with the irreconcilables who set out to kill the treaty.

Near the end of the debate on the treaty Senator Simmons of North Carolina who was willing to make important concessions in order to ratify the pact, fixed the blame for the failure of the Senate to ratify. As one of those not on the Foreign Relations Committee asked to take part in negotiations to bring about an agreement on reservations, Mr. Simmons knew every move that was made. He said:

"A persistent effort has been made by the friends of the treaty on the Democratic side to get together with the friends of the Republican side. Twice we had just about reached a point where the Senator (Mr. Lodge) would consent to a change, when he was interfered with by the irreconcilables on his side of the chamber, and at once he lost his courage and receded from his position. There is a strange tying of the hands of the majority on the Republican side of the chamber.

"Twice we could have compromised our differences. The friends of the treaty on both sides of the Senate were ready to get together when, by reason of an iron-bound agreement of some sort, which the Republican leaders solemnly entered into at the very inception of this controversy, they found themselves in themselves in the position they could not vote their own convictions unless they got the consent of Senators who disagreed with them fundamentally and in every particular.

"The majority on the other side of the chamber is gagged and bound, hand and foot, by a contract they made with Senators whose whole purpose and object is to kill the treaty."

Unusual Value—In Tires for the Smaller Cars

Not only is characteristic Goodyear merit conspicuous in Goodyear Tires for the smaller cars, but ordinarily the first cost is found to be not greater than that of other tires; often it is actually less.

The combination of unusual value in first cost and very low final cost, of course, is a result of Goodyear experience, expertness and care employed as insistently in the making of 30x3-, 30x3½- and 31x4-inch tires as it is in the construction of the famous Goodyear Cord Tires used on the highest-priced automobiles.

For this reason more cars using these sizes were factory-equipped last year with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind.

Get this unusual tire value to enjoy on your Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell, or other car using one of these sizes, at the nearest Goodyear Service Station. Get these tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes at this station.

Why Doctors Treat the Blood with Iron

When the doctor treats your blood, he gives you iron, for iron is the best thing in all medicine to build up the blood. Sometimes he does this by regulating your diet—sometimes he administers iron in the form of pills or tonics. But always he is seeking a way to get the most iron into your blood—he is trying to put back into the blood this great builder—iron—which it has lost.

Quick Improvement From New Form of Iron

The new way to restore iron to the blood—the surest and most dependable of all methods—is through the use of Acid Iron Mineral. This is a natural form of soluble iron—it is not prepared artificially by chemists like most medicinal iron, but is found in Nature itself, combined with other highly beneficial remedial agents. The story of the discovery of this new form of iron reads almost like a fairy tale and medical science has proved in thousands of cases its remarkable blood-making powers.

NO CHANCE TO COMPLAIN NOW SHE DECLARES

Miss Vetter has Gained 25 Pounds In Weight and Feels Fine All the Time—Highly Lauds Trutona.

Louisville, Ky. May 4.—"I weighed 140 pounds when I began taking Trutona but I tipped the scales at 165 pounds after I had finished the treatment, and I feel so good all the time now that I don't even have a chance to complain," Miss Ruby Vetter, a well-known employe of Herman Strauss & Sons Co., who lives at 1041 South Seventh Street, Louisville, said recently.

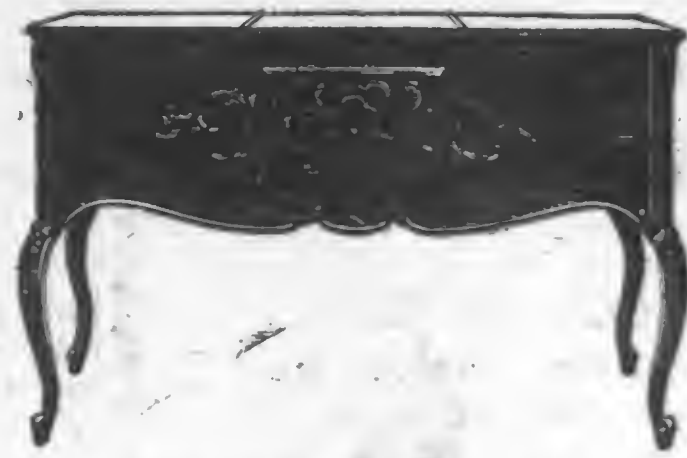

"I used to be a telephone operator, but I had to give up the position on account of my nerves," she continued. "I had the 'flu' last spring and it left my system in bad shape. My stomach was so weak I couldn't stand even the lightest of foods. I felt bilious all the time and was subject to frequent smothering spells."

"Trutona had done my mother so much good that I decided to try it myself. The benefits I gained are really better than I even expected. When I had finished my third bottle of Trutona, I felt as strong as I ever did. And I'm still feeling that way. My nerves are strong and steady now and I'm working at the department store now, too, and I feel so good all the time that I don't have a chance to complain."

Can any one doubt the sincerity of this remarkable statement by Miss Vetter? It is further proof, to be added to the ever increasing volume of testimony accumulating in favor of Trutona. As a system purifier and body invigorant for use after attack of influenza, pneumonia and the like, Trutona has proven to be peerless.

Trutona is sold in Columbia at Paull Drug Co. Adv

WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH THAT CHILD?

When Children Grow Pale and Listless Their Blood May Be Weak.

PEPTO-MANGAN MAKES RED BLOOD

Sold by Druggist in Liquid and Tablet Form—Both the Same in Medicinal Quality

When your child loses color, acts and talks without spirit, and does not play like other child, act quickly.

If the condition is not a deep-seated disease but merely due to poor blood, give Pepto-Mangan Gude's Pepto-Mangan is just the tonic for pale, thin children whose blood needs rebuilding. It is a pleasant-tasting, simple combination of exactly the ingredients that increase and enrich the blood.

Beneficial results show almost at once in brighter eyes, blooming cheeks, a sprightly step, and the whole system made more vigorous.

Pepto-Mangan is obtainable in liquid or tablet form, whichever proves most convenient. Both forms possess identical medicinal qualities.

There is but one genuine Pepto-Mangan and that is "Gude's." Ask your druggist for "Gude's" and look for the name "Gude's" on the package. If it is not there, it is not Pepto-Mangan.
